Places of Business to Close In Honor of Athletes Who Brought Fame For Themselves And Helped Make Baseball History

Tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Charleroi Baseball park, Ex-Governor, the Honorable John K. Tener, old Honus Wagner, Young Deacon Philippi, Old Tommie Quinn, Young Arch Osborne, Barney Wolf, Jock Menefee and the whole gang, will be in Charleroi to lock horns with Manager Mathers' regular Charleroi baseball team.

These old boys seem to think Manager Mathers doesn't know everything about baseball and they are going to start out tomorrow afternoon with an effort to teach them some things about inside baseball.

It is estimated that diamond luminaries, baseball men, from all over the state of Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia will be here tomorrow afternoon to witness this game and arrangements are now under way whereby the business houses of the town have been asked by the burgess to close their places of business between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Burgess Tussing in today's Mail asks in his proclamation that the business men and people in general turn out tomorrow afternoon to attend this game at the Charleroi Baseball park as a representative tribute to do honor to such men as our former baseball stars.

To see the renowned heroes of bygone days on the diamond will be a treat to the fans of this community, and even to people who are not in the habit of attending games nowadays; and the contest tomorrow between the former stars of the diamond and the present day athletes representing Charleroi will be a treat.

To see the Hon. John K. Tener pitch, and Hans Wagner play shortstop, will be well worth the time spent. Mr. Tener was a member of the Chicago White Stockings when Adrian C. Anson played first base and captained the club that contained such diamond luminaries as Clarkson, Kelly, Pfeffer, Williamson, Burns, Gore, and "Billy" Sunday. As for Wagner, he is of a little later galaxy of diamond heroes, but his performances for the Pittsburgh team will live long in the minds of the people.

Of the others who will play with the old-timers, the reader is familiar. You will want to see them all. Manager Mathers will pitch Lefty, and will have his regular club on the field. It will be interesting to see what kind of a showing the former big leaguers will make against the locals—and if they should win, the town won't be able to hold them.

Fifty Candidates Out For High School Football Team This Season

Instead of sponsoring the usual football training camp as in former years, it was decided last night at a meeting of 40 old and new members of the Charleroi High School football squad with Coach Stepanian held in the auditorium of the High school, that with but one week starting next Monday until the beginning of school the training would take place in Charleroi.

This is a new idea, and according to arrangements made, will be quite as beneficial as well as practical. The boys, numbering approximately 50, will start out Monday morning on a vigorous program of training

EDITOR OF MAIL MOURNS DEATH OF A BROTHER

The editor of the Mail was apprised by telegram yesterday of the death at Silverton, Oregon, of one of his brothers, Alexander A. O'Kane, at the age of 70 years. Mr. O'Kane was quite prominent in Republican politics, and while a strong Coolidge man, in a letter received by the writer a few days before his passing, he said that La Follette has quite a following in the state of Oregon, and the west. The death of Mr. O'Kane was sudden, being caused by heart failure. He had not been in good health for a number of years.

Mrs. Walker had been a resident of Charleroi for a number of years and was well known here. Besides her daughter, Mrs. Beatty, she is survived by another daughter, Mrs. William Faglen of Riversville, West Virginia, and a son, Albert Walker, of Dunlevy. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in charge of Rev. Joe Tucker pastor of the Latter Day Saints church. Interment will follow in the Charleroi cemetery.

McCLAIN'S BEACH.

Three hundred tons of material has been used to line the bottom of the swimming pool at McClain's Beach. Many Charleroi people are taking advantage of the clear, clean water in this pool, which is located about two miles on this side of Smithton. Cedar Creek was dammed and the clean water from this creek flows continually through the pool, keeping the water fresh. The grounds are free to campers and picnickers, also free parking space for cars. A place to take a swim in clean water is appreciated by all swimmers in this district.

I, J. B. Tussing, Burgess, call upon all citizens insofar as possible to cease all activities at 4 p. m. on that day in order that we may meet at the Base Ball Park and cheer their play as we did in former years.

Try To Learn Nail Strewers On Highway

State highway officials were in Monongahela yesterday in company with two state policemen from Greensburg preparing for an investigation

the person or persons who have been strewing heavy roofing nails along the Country club road.

Following reports from a score of motorists, who have suffered damage because of the action of the culprits, the Monongahela officials notified the state highway department on last Saturday and the investigation was started at once. In the last three weeks motorists have found it necessary to proceed cautiously along the Country club road in order to avoid running over the nails which are distributed at intervals from Cemetery Hill along the road right up to the clubhouse.

VETERAN IS IN COMMUNITY

Captain David Allen of Jetmore, Kansas, an octogenarian now in his eighty-first year, is visiting friends in the city of Monongahela.

Captain Allen was a former resident of this district, and during the Civil war served as a member of the One Hundred Fifty-Fifth Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry. He left this section 48 years ago, locating in the state of Kansas, where he has since resided. He was in attendance at the national convention in Boston, and decided to stop in Monongahela and visit friends on his return trip to his western home.

Robert M. LaFollette, leading the army of extreme radicalism, has a platform demanding public ownership of railroads and attacking our courts, which are a fundamental and constitutional safeguard of American citizenship," Dawes said.

"Our nation is asked to leave important constitutional moorings to embark again into these contests through which it has fought up to the establishment of good government, through the Civil war and through the World war, our people have struggled to maintain our constitutional principles. They are asked to follow into an attack on them massed behind aggressive personality, a heterogeneous collection of those opposing the existing order of things, the greatest section of which, the socialists, flies the red flag, and into what? Into confusion and conflict of ideas and ideals and into the reopening of war upon those fundamental principles of human liberty and the inalienable rights of men which are giving in this country safety and opportunity to the humblest, and to establish which the blood of our forefathers was shed. This is the predominant issue in this campaign."

Characterizing the Republican party as the "party of progressive conservatism," Dawes said:

"Lying between these two armies of progressive conservatism and of radicalism, which are properly aligned upon this issue in the minds and conscience of the American people, is interposed the Democratic party, with one conservative and one radical candidate on its ticket, hoping to get votes by avoiding the issue."

"In this situation, for which the American people alone are responsible, the Democratic party, as a party, instead of recruiting itself from the two battle lines will suffer only the fate which befalls those who try to straddle in a real fight."

Dawes said that the Republican party, under the leadership of President Coolidge, has taken its stand firmly for the constitution.

"Opposed to it, and in reality its chief opponent, though the result may be a deadlock for the contest for the presidency and make Bryanism succeed the Coolidge policy, is a movement of untried and dangerous radicalism," Dawes declared.

Discussing the League of Nations, Dawes pointed to the enormous Republican majority in 1920 as a conclusive mandate of the American people against membership.

Dawes made a plea for American membership in the World Court, pointing out:

"Even when we join the court, we are not compelled to submit a case to it if we do not wish to do so."

"The sovereignty of the United States is fully safeguarded in the propositions of President Coolidge in connection with the world court," Dawes said.

USES KNIFE WHEN AGENT TRIES TO FIGHT

Pittsburgh, Aug. 20.—Florence Slicer, a nurse, is in jail today on a charge of attacking a real estate agent with a butcher knife, when he attempted to evict a sick woman for non-payment of rent.

The Democratic party asks the people to "turn back with them into the morass of the debate on the League of Nations by putting the question to a public referendum," Dawes said, "while the Republican party asks the people to abandon the debate and stand on President Coolidge's foreign policy."

Dawes praised the administration's economies in conducting the government and lauded President Coolidge for signing the income tax reduction measure in the face of much opposition.

A bounteous picnic lunch was eaten on the lawn of the Stewart home. W. J. Stewart and Miss May Stewart, host and hostess, furnished coffee and ice cream and opened their home to the guests.

After lunch a speaking program was opened by a short address of welcome from Mr. Stewart. D. L. Post, of Dunns Station and G. S. Shrumm, of Jeannette, responded. S. J. DEEDS COUNT MORE THAN WORDS.

In a number of Northern States the negro voters have been indignantly complaining of the insufficiency of the political "paw" spooned out to them by the Republican party. The latest of these indignation meetings is reported from Delaware, the account of which reads: "Leading negroes held a public meeting, sternly condemning the Republican party in Delaware for its brutal treatment of faithful negro allies for more than half a century. Defiant in tone were the resolutions. They recited the fact that no offices higher than janitorships were conferred upon negroes by the Republican party; that negroes were excluded from juries in the State courts, and that no negro lawyer can receive permission to practice his profession in the courts of Republican Delaware. They insisted that medicine would be administered to the Republican party in future unless there should be a change."

It may be true, as claimed that negro voters hold the balance of power in a number of doubtful Northern states. What is true beyond question is that this class of voters in the said States will never get what they want until they take the bit in their teeth and follow "indignation meetings" with actual revolt at the polls. In every election campaign in recent years they have complained and threatened loudly and then the bulk of their votes were counted as usual for the Republican party. Hence the leaders of that party, declining to be alarmed by mere noise, see no good reason for the demanded change of policy.

Eddie Pinchot Gets Decision Over His Canadian Rival

DAZZY VANCE JINX WORKS; BROOKLYN BEATS THE PIRATES

The Pirates had Ol' Daz on the ropes yesterday afternoon, but Dazzy had a couple of good seconds in his corner and besides escaping a knock-out he hung up his tenth straight victory over the fighting—but somewhat careless Pirates. The Dodgers developed a punch in the eighth inning which grabbed the bacon right out of the Pirates' mouths.

Eddie Brown, a tall Texan who is a reminder of Cy Williams in physique, gave a fine imitation of Lanky Cy in the eighth inning when he hammered the ball far over the garden wall for two markers which changed the whole picture. The Pirates were leading Dazzy and his gang just before the Brown round-tripper.

Old man Brown's son hung upwards of 15,000 fans and 25 Pirates on a sour apple tree when he crashed that three-and-two pitch over the left barrier. The awful sock jostled the Oaklanders a full step away from flag, which McGraw still expects to caress as his own. The Giants finally stopped the skidding by winning over the demoralized Reds. Wilbur Cooper was one of the principal sufferers from panky scene of the eighth. Seldom has the southpaw worked harder to win a ball game, but he appeared to ease up just at the wrong time. Cooper went into the eighth with a two-run lead. The Vance jinx to all intents was routed but in our moment of relaxation the Dodgers drove a victory wedge and the day was made most unprofitable.

Before 2500 fans at the Charleroi Baseball park, Eddie Pinchot of Charleroi staged his come-back after a year out of the fighting arena. His efforts with Chris Newton, Junior lightweight champion of Canada were very pleasing to the fans. He showed that his come back was going to be permanent and that the western Pennsylvania fight fans and those across the border in Canada are going to hear much more than they have heard about Eddie Pinchot in the last year.

Eddie fought his usual careful fight just like he did in the old days and he showed the fans that he had not forgotten anything about the game during the year he was out. He remembered all the little tricks and all tactics that go to make a champion. While Mr. Newton, Canadian aspirant tried everything possible and in every way to gain an edge on Eddie his efforts went for naught and it was not until the seventh round that the boys came together in a real attempt for a knockout. The last three rounds of the fight was pleasing and all in all it was one of the best shows ever staged in the upper Monongahela valley.

The arrangements last night were nice, the crowd was exceptionally big, the weather man was favorable and everything went along in such a nice, easy smooth manner, that the Charleroi Elks who staged the fight are being given much credit throughout this part of the country today.

One of the pleasing parts of the program was the fight between Willie Davies of Roscoe and Joe Shurra of Pittsburgh. This was really a good fight, in fact one of the best of the evening and was enjoyed very much by the fans. Much has been heard and said through the valley of the efforts Willie Davies was making find out that he promises to be a regular fighter.

The six round bout between Davies and Shurra was good from start but not until last night did the fans to finish. Shurra, heavy, strong and rugged looking and Davies looked like a novice along side of him when they first entered the ring, but the first round was not over until Willie showed his true metal and put up one of the grandest fights ever seen in this part of the valley. Davies easily won the decision.

This fight was supposed to be one of the preliminaries but it turned out to be one of the real battles of the evening, and the other two prelims between Willie Ritchie of Donora and Jurdy Moras of Charleroi. "Pug" Phillips of Fayette City and Young Cosmo of Monessen, who appeared in the curtain raiser, were pleasing. Judy Moras of Charleroi was awarded the decision in a six-round bout and the curtain raiser was a draw, the judges deciding the boys loved each other too well, and hung on too much, and while there was not much fighting the love making ended by the judge deciding that they had lost.

The judges were Jack Mier and Joe Connell of Charleroi and the referee was Martin Dietz. The announcer was Frank Delvaux, and the little red headed boy did his announcing in such a pleasing manner that it was one of the things that went to make the Elks show the success that it turned out to be.

LIGHTWEIGHTS IN

AN ELIMINATION

Plans for an all-star lightweight elimination tournament with 10 entrants seeking to establish their claims as the challengers have been practically completed by James J. Johnston, head of the National Sports Alliance. This showy according to Mr. Johnston, will be held September 15 at the Queenstown Stadium, New York, and will be for the benefit of the relief fund of the Alliance. It has received the sanction of the state athletic commission.

Competitors who have posted forfeits to appear in five 10-round matches, Johnston announced, include Cuddy De Marco, Pittsburgh; Billy Gilmore, Ireland; Harry Mason, English champion; Jimmy Goodrich, Buffalo; Johnny Dundee, featherweight champion; Benny Valgar, New York; Alex Hart, and Ray Miller, Philadelphia.

Mendelssohn, Milwaukee, and Sammy Mandell, Chicago.

According to Johnston, several prominent lightweights including Jack Bernstein, Jack Zivie, Luis Vincentini and Sid Barbarian already have been eliminated by defeats from consideration as entrants in the tournament.

STRONG CAST IN

"FOR SALE"

In "For Sale," the First National picture now on the screen at the Majestic Theatre today and tomorrow, are a cosmopolitan group of players, from the four corners of the earth. This is a remarkable drama of modern society. The leading feminine role is handled by Claire Windsor, who appeared in "A Son of the Sakers." Adolphe Menjou, whose finished performance in Chaplin's "A Woman of Paris" created such a furore, gives the finest character interpretation in this picture. Robert Ellis is the hero of the story and is given ample opportunity to run the gamut of emotions from a position in New York's society to the slums of Paris.

Mary Carr, famous as the mother in "Over the Hill," has a role radically different to anything she has heretofore portrayed. Tully Marshall as the father, unwittingly committed a crime and thereby loses his daughter to place herself on the auction block of matrimony in order to save him. Vera Reynolds, the excitement-seeking flapper of "Shadows of Paris," once again scores

Makes you look inches thinner
the moment you put it on—and gently but surely massages away your fat while you walk, play, or work.

THE moment you put on the Madame X Girdle, the bulky fat on waist and hips seems to vanish and your body becomes erect, graceful, youthfully slender! Built upon scientific massage principles which have caused reductions of 5, 10, 15, even 25 pounds. Made of the most resilient Para rubber especially designed for reducing purposes. Worn over the undergarment—fits as snugly as a kid glove and has garters attached.

It is so constructed that it touches and gently massages the entire surface of abdomen, waist, hips and thighs as you walk, climb stairs, bend, reach or dance. Every movement you make, even your natural breathing, is met by this live rubber girdle, which gently massages away the fat—without any part. Women often lose from 1 to 3 inches from waist and hips the very first week. Special cut-away front insures perfect comfort while you sit, work or play. And the special back lacing makes it easy to adjust as you become more slender. You must see this remarkable girdle to appreciate it. Come in today and see it. You will want to take it off!

DEFENDANTS' BAIL

FIXED AT $15,000

The bail for Mike Humenick, postmaster of Slovan, and his son-in-law, Wm. Serenia, who were arrested yesterday in connection with the dynamiting of the residence of Henry Tennyson, early Friday morning, was fixed yesterday at $15,000 each. Both men have been in jail ever since their arrest Saturday. Yesterday they were taken before the court to have bail fixed, but Judge Cummins stated that this could be done by the Alderman. They were then taken before Alderman J. F. Carmichael, who fixed the bail.

One thousand dollars reward for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the dynamiting outrage at the Tennyson home, was offered by the county commissioners yesterday afternoon, and placards have been printed. These will be distributed throughout Western Pennsylvania and especially in the Burgettstown section.

Suspicion pointed to Humenick from the fact that he and Tennyson had had some trouble. The latter and the former arrested on a charge of assault and battery and secured a conviction several months ago. Upon request of Tennyson, the court suspended sentence. An effort was made to have the court pass sentence yesterday afternoon, but the matter was postponed until 1:15 o'clock this afternoon, when the court will hold a hearing to determine whether sentence should be pronounced.

Musician Out of Tune.

"Gas pressure in my stomach sometimes distressed me so that I could not think. I played out of tune and twice lost my position. No medicine helped me and I became disheartened. Another musician advised me to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and I am now enjoying the best of health." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all druggists.
